2005

- Formed as Canadian Equipment Rental and Limited Partnership, a publicly traded trust company with two subsidiaries: 4-Way Equipment Rentals and Smart Way Disposal.

February 2016

- Acquired Zedcor Oilfield Rentals – a premier oilfield rental business – for $21MM.

Summer 2016

- Sold various under utilized oilfield rental assets for > $4MM.

January 2017

- Sold 4-Way Equipment Rentals Corp. to Cooper Rentals Canada Inc. for $8.5MM.

Current

- The remaining assets of Zedcor are oilfield focused rentals, serving oil and gas development in the WCSB.

2011 - 2014

- Material acquisitions including MCL Waste, Trac, Empire Tool

August 2014

- Acquired Winalta, a publically traded oilfield accommodation rentals business, for $70.6MM.

December 2016

- Sold MCL Waste (which included Smart Way) to GFL Environmental Inc. for $12.0MM.

April 2017

- Refinanced $20.4 million of debt with Maynbridge Capital and secured $1 million operating line with ATB.

- ▶ Zedcor has restructured its operations through the disposal of its underutilized assets and its general equipment rental division and environmental waste management division, to focus on its oilfield rental business.
- ▶ Proceeds from these dispositions were applied to reduce debt levels and allow for a asset-backed refinancing in April 2017 which is light on cash flow covenants and thus well suited for the current low commodity price environment.
- ▶ Zedcor's current operations provide a comprehensive rental fleet of surface equipment, wellsite accommodations, lighting and power generation assets for its customers.

Restructuring Outcomes

- 1. Refocused on a Core Rental Business

After successfully divesting of non-core and under utilized assets, Zedcor is well positioned to take advantage of a recovering oil and gas industry when it presents itself. Today, the Company is an oilfield equipment rental business with a top tier fleet, focused on the most active operating areas, and with strong customers.
- 2. Lean Cost Structure

Zedcor has removed approximately $5 million from its cost structure (excluding divested subsidiaries) through headcount reductions of 40% and the consolidation of facilities while retaining a quality employee base that can support the full utilization of the rental fleet.
- 3. High Quality Rental Fleet

Asset base with a full complement of accommodations and surface equipment to support drilling and completion programs. The modern rental fleet has a net book value of $45.2 million, an average age of 4 years, and based on historic rental rates over the past 4 years, can deliver EBITDA between $5 mm to $20 mm annually.
- 4. Refinanced with an Asset-Backed Lender

The new $20.4 million asset-backed debt financing secured in April 2017 provides Zedcor with the flexibility needed to navigate through the current market volatility.
- 5. Exposure to Montney/Duvernay Basin

Zedcor is strategically located to service the Montney and Duvernay developments where low-cost gas and liquid supplies have attracted significant E&P investment, further boosted by stability in crude oil and gas prices.

 - ▶ Shale
 - ▶ Premix
- ▶ Pipe Racks
- ▶ Pumps

Revenue by Customer

- ▶ Zedcor works for most of the top tier E&P companies and benefits from its diverse customer base with no significant customer concentration.
- ▶ Although the Company has not relied heavily on any one customer, year over year, the top customers remain relatively consistent demonstrating the strong affinity for Zedcor's high quality equipment and service approach.
- ▶ Zedcor's top customers are active Montney producers with large capital budgets including Seven Generations, Tourmaline and Progress Energy.

2016 Revenue

Zedcor customers highlighted

Source: CIBC World Markets, EY Research

- ▶ Zedcor is strategically positioned across the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin (“WCSB”) to take advantage of the multiple formations and areas of development.
- ▶ From its operations in Estevan, Zedcor is able to access Manitoba, taking advantage of opportunities around electrical transmission lines being constructed in the province.
- ▶ Zedcor’s strong presence in the Montney and Duvernay (representing 85% of total revenue) bode well for the Company as these formations are continually cited as the areas expected to experience the most significant growth in the WCSB and attract the bulk of capital spending given excellent full cycle economics – even at current commodity prices.

▶ Well Site Accommodation Expansion & Upgrade

- ▶ While Zedcor currently has one of the newest fleets of wellsite accommodations it is necessary maintain that leadership by continually upgrading the fleet of accommodation for the latest configurations.

▶ LED and Solar Hybrid Lighting Systems

- ▶ Dramatically reduces fuel costs for the producers.
- ▶ Significantly increased useful life (more than double the life of existing diesel light towers).
- ▶ Currently within the product offering of Zedcor but there is significant room to develop and expand the fleet.

▶ Midstream & Infrastructure Projects

- ▶ Zedcor has already begun to diversify its customer base away from E&P customers. Currently, non-E&P revenue accounts for 8-10% of the Company's total revenues.

▶ Sewer Containment

- ▶ The addition of this service offering would be complementary to the existing accommodation units.
- ▶ This service is required on site and would be sold to the existing customer base to reduce the number of individual tickets that are required.

Near Term Strategy

1. Continue to deliver operational excellence so as to maximize equipment utilization and cash flow
2. Strengthen the balance sheet by continued debt reduction
3. Evaluate market for strategic growth opportunities with immediate accretive potential
